The HOME Coalition
formally invites you to attend the Building HOME Congressional Briefing
Wednesday, October 28, 2015
Capitol Visitors Center—Room SVC 203
2:00 P.M. to 3:00 P.M.

Sponsored by Honorary Hosts Sen. Patrick Leahy (D-VT) and Sen. Chris Coons (D-DE)

The HOME Coalition will share findings from its new report, “Building HOME: The HOME Investment Partnerships Program’s Impact on America’s Families and Communities,” which will be officially released at the briefing. This first-of-its-kind report analyzes the program’s economic impact in all 50 states—including job creation and local economic activity—and features more than 100 HOME Success Stories from communities across the nation.

Speakers include:
- Sarah Mickelson, Enterprise Community Partners
- Tony Gibbons, Blount County Habitat for Humanity, Tennessee
- Jacqueline Alexander, The Community Builders, Pennsylvania
- Kathleen Koch, Arundel Community Development Services, Maryland
- William Fogarty, Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency, Pennsylvania

Congressional staff will receive information about HOME’s impact in their state and examples of HOME Success Stories.

To RSVP, please email Devian Wilcox at dwilcox@enterprisecommunity.org.
